

OUR FOUR FUNDAMENTAL QUALITY PILLARS - IDENTIFYING GLOBAL BEST-IN-CLASS BUSINESSES

INVESTMENT OBJECTIVE

To achieve long-term growth in capital and income in a focused portfolio of high quality listed businesses from around the world.

INVESTMENT PHILOSOPHY

We invest in best in class businesses for their quality, strategic competitive edge and value.

FUND COMMENTARY

The US stock market had good reason for a positive performance in December. US employment data remained reasonably healthy. The US Federal Reserve cut its target rate by 0.25% thereby supporting the economy. The surprisingly low US headline inflation figure of +2.7% was good news for capital markets, especially because the cost of shelter, the largest contributor, dropped further. All the other large contributors also moved lower. Earnings revisions for the S&P 500 index continued rising. The announcement of the strong third quarter US GDP of +4.3% further bolstered investor confidence. These collectively led to the traditional 'Santa Claus' rally.

The largest contributors to the Fund's performance over the month were S&P Global, Visa and GE Aerospace. The first two stocks benefited from a general rerating of quality stocks that have operationally continued delivering well, but with their stocks lagging the market for most of 2025 following the sharp rotation away from Quality into AI related stocks. This was also the case for the fourth and fifth largest contributors to performance (Mastercard and AJ Gallagher). It seems the rerating of Quality has begun, with good potential for a material contribution in 2026.

Following a brief lull in November, GE Aerospace's stock recovered its strong momentum in December. High demand for their turbines and aftermarket services led to expectations of high capital returns to shareholders.

The largest detractors from performance were EssilorLuxottica, Netflix and Broadcom. Information that Alphabet (Google) is planning to launch smart glasses with AI capability affected investor sentiment on the first. The unexpected news that Netflix is making a bid for Warner Bros Discovery, along with further news that Paramount Skydance is making a rival bid, affected investor confidence. Despite Broadcom's strong earnings report and news of a further large order from Anthropic, the stock fell on heightened fears over lower expected gross margins on the expanding AI related revenues.

OUTCOME OF FAIR VALUE ASSESSMENTS (2024)

- The fund meets the needs of the target market.
- The intended distribution strategy remains appropriate.
- Historically, the fund did not deliver value for money. In response, as of the 2nd August 2023, Stonehage Fleming Investment Management Limited changed the personnel managing the fund and the approach to investment selection. The fund will follow the strategy pursued by the Stonehage Fleming Global best ideas fund (GBI), and own the same quality growth business as this fund. The historic performance of GBI, together with more information on the manager, can be found at www.stonehagefleming.com/GBI

INVESTOR PROFILE

The fund is appropriate for all investor types, including those with only a basic knowledge of funds. It is compatible with investors who do not need a capital guarantee (investors must be prepared to accept fluctuations in the value of capital, including the ability to bear 100% capital loss) and are seeking capital growth. Due to the volatility of markets, investors should be willing to accept price fluctuations in exchange for the opportunity of potentially higher returns. This is a long term investment and investors should have an investment time horizon of at least 5 years. The recommended holding period does not provide any guarantee that the objective will be achieved. This product is eligible for all distribution channels (e.g. investment advice, portfolio management, non-advised sales and pure execution services).

The fund is unlikely to be appropriate for those who:

- Are looking for full capital protection or full repayment of the amount invested, and those who want a guaranteed return
- Have no risk tolerance
- Who are unwilling to accept price fluctuations (volatility) in the value of the fund
- Do not intend to invest for the long term

RISK PROFILE

The following risks are material:

- The price of units/shares and any income from them may fall as well as rise and investors may not get back the full amount invested. Past performance is not a guide to future performance. There is no assurance that the investment objective of the Fund will actually be achieved.
- Where investments are in the shares of companies (equities), the value of those equities may fluctuate, sometimes dramatically, in response to the activities and results of individual companies or because of general market and economic conditions or other events.
- Where derivative investments in the Fund may include a counterparty, there is a risk that the counterparty will not fulfil their obligation.
- The Fund may use derivatives to reduce costs, overall risk and/or generate additional capital or income. This is known as Efficient Portfolio Management (EPM). When used for EPM purposes, there should not be an increase in the overall risk level of the Fund.
- More political, economic or structural challenges face emerging markets or less developed countries than developed countries which may increase volatility and uncertainty.
- Where investments in the Fund are in currencies other than your own, changes in exchange rates may affect the value of your investments.
- Significant exposure to a particular industrial sector or geographical region puts the Fund at risk of a localised event making a significant impact on the value of the Fund.

All the risks currently identified as being applicable to the Fund are set out in the 'Risk' section of the Prospectus.
