MANAGER PERFORMANCE HIGHLIGHTS

Broader global equities continued to be driven predominantly by the 7 largest global stocks in Q2 2023, to which GRIF holds only one third of the benchmark allocation (5.5% versus 16.5%); we estimate that our underweight to these 7 stocks accounted for the entirety of GRIF's underperformance during the quarter. As the manager with the greatest exposure to these mega-cap growth stocks, Edgewood performed best during the quarter, however this led the valuations of Edgewood's stocks to reach levels which we think leave little room for error and so we sold out of the position entirely.
